

Ariesa Wortelboer

Vice President of Finance and
Human Resources

As Vice President of Finance and Human Resources, Ariesa Wortelboer brings both precision and care to Lockett & Farley's operations. A graduate of the University of Utah with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, she blends financial expertise with a deep commitment to supporting the people who make the firm thrive. Ariesa oversees the firm's financial strategy while also guiding employee-focused initiatives that strengthen Lockett & Farley's culture as a 100% employee-owned company. Her role bridges business and people, ensuring the firm remains both fiscally resilient and a place where talent can grow and succeed.

