

JEFF MONEYPENNY, AIA, LEED AP

Senior Vice President & Architecture Manager

With more than 30 years at Lockett & Farley, Jeff Money Penny brings unmatched experience and leadership to the firm. As Senior Vice President and Architecture Manager, he guides multidisciplinary teams in shaping facilities that honor tradition, support innovation, and strengthen one of Kentucky's most iconic industries. A graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in architecture, Jeff has dedicated his career to designing environments that balance craft and efficiency, heritage and modernity. His work reflects both deep technical knowledge and a strong commitment to client relationships, ensuring every project delivers long-term value.

