

MATT GULLO, PLA, CLARB, ASLA

Manager of Landscape Architecture and Urban Planning

Matt Gullo leads our Urban Planning and Landscape Architecture Discipline with a focus on creating functional, aesthetically engaging, and environmentally sensitive spaces. He holds a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Clemson University and a master's in urban planning and policy from the University of Illinois at Chicago. Matt's work centers on designing landscapes that seamlessly connect outdoor environments with building forms, incorporating safe pedestrian and vehicular zones, visually appealing features, and sustainable solutions. He excels at resolving both technical and design challenges to ensure projects meet budgets, reflect owner vision, and provide lasting enjoyment for users. Outside of work, Matt enjoys hiking, mountain biking, and landscaping his own yard.
